

Health skills for the future

The Healthcare sector is one of the largest industries in the country. It's also set to be one of the fastest growing employment sectors over the coming year. The NHS, in particular, is experiencing significant challenges to meet recruitment targets and source the skilled staff needed to support its demand.

Our end-point assessment (EPA) and on-programme offer provides an end-to-end solution for the Health sector. Geraldine Donworth, Industry Manager for Adult Care, Health and Child Care said:

“City & Guilds has consistently provided support for a wide range of employer groups during the development of the apprenticeships in these areas from some of the very first standards to those currently being produced.”
