Construction Qualification Information Sheet

For an easy guide to all the new registration end dates for our construction qualifications, go to the construction information sheet (May 2019) on the website under the 'latest news' section: <https://www.cityandguilds.com/qualifications-and-apprenticeships/construction/latest-news-in-construction>

This spreadsheet also shows the qualifications approved on QiW. The next update for this spreadsheet will take place at the end of July 2019.

Qualification end date reviews

The registration end dates have now been reviewed up until 31st December 2019, with the majority being extended to 2020. These are shown on the Qualification Information Sheet (see above). If you have any concerns please do contact us.

SASE Apprenticeship Frameworks at Intermediate (Level 2) and Advanced (Level 3) – CITB statement

The Construction Industry Training Board (CITB), in its role as the Issuing Authority for Construction Apprenticeships developed under the Specification of Apprenticeship Standards England (SASE), has taken the decision not to proceed with the planned closure of a number of Apprenticeship frameworks at the end of July 2019. This has been done in response to information received from the Institute of Apprenticeships and Technical Education (IFATE) about the readiness of some end point assessment organisations to deliver certain construction related Apprenticeship Standards.

CITB's primary concerns in taking this decision are to ensure that individual candidates are not disadvantaged and that the end-point assessments delivered ensure a quality outcome for learners and industry.

The table on the next pages provides a summary of the previous plans for the closure of frameworks, and any changes to this position.

CITB will continue to work closely with IFATE, employer trailblazer groups, training and end-point assessment organisations to agree a timeline for the closure of each framework as new standards are approved for delivery.

In line with our previous commitments, we will ensure that providers are given at least 6 months notice of any planned closures.

The Education and Skills Funding Agency has stated that all frameworks (where they have not already been closed by Issuing Authorities) will be withdrawn by them 2020 to 2021 academic year, as they expect that employers and providers will have completed the transition by this date. (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/removal-of-apprenticeship-frameworks>).

Construction Telephone Surgeries

We are continuing with our popular telephone surgeries open to all customers delivering Construction qualifications. This is your opportunity to talk directly with one of our Technical Advisers Paul Brown and Ian Roberts to get support and guidance on our construction qualifications and policy.

The surgeries we will be available every Friday during term time from 12 noon until 3pm.

- Paul Brown (Technical Advisor) – Tel: 07872 463185
- Ian Roberts (Technical Advisor) – Tel: 07826 903967

Please note:

Please feel free to contact either Paul or Ian at any other time during the working week. You do not have to wait until Friday.

Update on City & Guilds apprenticeship standards

City & Guilds are committed to offering the construction trailblazers and the update below gives the details on the status of each trade, the assessment plan status and a guideline of timescales for delivery.

Bricklayer 9077

We are approved as an EPAO to offer this standard.

The assessment plan is currently undergoing amendments and we expect to hear if the updated assessment plan has been approved at the end of July. There is an assessment plan currently on the IfA website which is showing as a final assessment plan, but this will be replaced later this summer once the new assessment plan is approved. Once we receive confirmation of this we will communicate detailed timescales for when first EPA assessments will take place, which is likely to be 2020. Registrations will open for this soon, and this is planned for the end of July 2019.

For more details, please refer to the webpage:

Please note there is no formal qualification for the on-programme element of this qualification, however the training specification on the website details the on-programme requirements for this standard.

Level 2 Carpentry and Joinery 9078

We are approved as an EPAO to offer this standard.

The assessment plan for this standard is approved and we are currently developing all the EPA assessment material. Registrations open July/August 2019. EPA reservations and bookings are planned to be available November 2019. For more details, please refer to the webpage:

In the meantime, centres can continue with the on-programme element, which is the 6571 Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Wood Occupations (Construction), in preparation to going onto the End-point Assessment.

Advanced Carpentry and Joinery 9079

We will be applying to be approved as an EPAO for this standard soon, ready for delivery for this EPA in Autumn 2019. Registrations are due to open August 2019, and first assessments will be available in the Autumn.

The assessment plan for this standard is approved although this is likely to be revised in the future.

For more details, please refer to the webpage:

In the meantime, centres can continue with the on-programme element, which is the 6571 Level 3 NVQ Diploma in Wood Occupations (Construction), in preparation to going onto the End-point Assessment. There are two pathways for this- Site Carpentry (6571-27) and Architectural Joinery (6571-28).

Plasterer 9086

We will be applying to be approved as an EPAO for this standard soon. Timescales will be communicated in future newsletters.

The assessment plan is currently undergoing amendments and we expect to hear if the updated assessment plan has been approved at the end of July. There is an assessment plan currently on the IfA website which is showing as a final assessment plan, but this will be replaced later this summer once the new assessment plan is approved. Once we receive confirmation of this we will communicate detailed timescales for when registrations will be open and first EPA assessments will take place, which is likely to be 2020. For more details, please refer to the webpage:

Please note there is no formal qualification for the on-programme element of this qualification, however there will be a training specification on the website once the assessment plan is finalised that details the on-programme requirements for this standard.

New resources available to support on-programme apprenticeship standards

City & Guilds have recently launched the following support materials for the new Apprenticeships standards in Carpentry & Joinery, Advanced Carpentry & Joinery, and Bricklaying:

- Training Manuals
- Enhanced SmartScreen package

All available now to purchase on SmartScreen.

Cross-Industry Construction Apprenticeship Task Force (CCATF)

City & Guilds actively supports the apprenticeship and skills agenda across a wide spectrum of organisations. Once such collaboration is with the Cross-Industry Construction Apprenticeship Task Force (CCATF) which is an organisation that promotes and supports the development of apprenticeships and skills within the UK construction sector. By supporting initiatives that encourage organisations to understand the advantages of bringing apprentices and other talented individuals into the sector, the CCATF supports skills growth that benefits the construction sector and UK Plc alike.

The upcoming second annual apprenticeship conference of the CCATF offers an opportunity for organisations looking to embark on a journey of up-skilling their business, hiring and apprentice or otherwise improving business performance through the development of skills.

There will be a number of high profile contributors to the event, including a keynote address from Mr Andy Burnham, the Mayor of Manchester. There will also be a presentation by Mr David Philips, of City & Guilds.

Other contributions will include:

- Greater Manchester Combined Authority
- Seddon Construction Ltd
- The Institute for Apprenticeship and Technical Education

Attendance to this event is free and you are able to book via the Eventbrite website on the following link: <http://tinyurl.com/y3jv6u97>

CPD events

Don't forget our up and coming CPD events. Please take a look at our full list below, including:
