

Plumbing & Heating Exemption Guidance

October 2020

Introduction

This document supports centres to make correct exemption decisions for enrolled candidates with prior achievements that can be credited towards City and Guilds' current Plumbing & Heating qualifications. Curriculum delivery staff and exam departments should consult the tables produced when claiming candidate achievement and identifying the assessments that need to be completed. These requirements are in addition to the normal processes a centre must follow for recognition of prior learning (RPL). City & Guilds Policy and guidance on RPL can be found here).

If, after the RPL process, a candidate does not demonstrate the knowledge, understanding and skills required, they should undertake a personalised learning programme, leading to the relevant and specified qualification assessments required.

This document details what prior learning can be used for exemptions in 6189 and 9189.

9189 – Level 3 Diploma in Plumbing and Domestic Heating Apprenticeship Standard

If RPL is to be used to count towards the 9189 qualification, then centres must register candidates on 9189-94/95/96/97 (restrictions apply).

Tables 1, 2 and 3 identify the 9189 assessments that candidates with City & Guilds 6035, 8202 and 6189 qualifications are exempt from. Other awarding organisations equivalent qualifications are also accepted provided they are current, authentic and valid.

If there are more than five years between certification of the prior achievement and registration onto the 9189 Level 3 Level 3 Diploma in Plumbing and Domestic Heating, then qualifications are not considered current and therefore cannot be used for exemptions.. Certification of qualifications older than this 5-year period are not accepted.

If candidates have partially completed qualifications, or equivalent qualifications from other Awarding Organisations and wish to use this as credit towards the 9189, then centres should contact City & Guilds to discuss how this credit can be transferred.

If candidates have completed other permutations or legacy qualifications not included in the tables below, then centres should contact City & Guilds to discuss how this credit can be transferred.

Registration on Walled Garden

For registration on the relevant pathways the following unit routes should be used: 9189-93.

Skills Scan/Action Plan

Whenever an exemption is granted, centres can capture the decision, associated evidence and further assessment requirements on the Skills Scan document in Appendix 1.

This pro forma provides a record that centres have confirmed the suitability for exemption.

In some cases, an assessor may deem the candidate suitable for a reduction in learning but not sufficient for unit assessment exemption. The document can be used to help identify learning needs.

All judgements made by an assessor must be reinforced with auditable evidence, such as copies of the candidates' certificates.

Note: Copies of certificates used for exemption must be in the apprentice's portfolio for quality assurance purposes.

Table 1: 9189 Exemptions

Register on 9189-94/95/96/97. Once registered, centres should use proxies to claim exemptions for e-volve multiple choice tests.

Proxy numbers and the relevant assignment number are given in the table below.

Note: Qualification must be no older than 5 years at the time of registration for the purposes of assessment exemption

Completed Level 2 6035 or 6189 or 8202 (or other AO equivalent with skills scan): Exempt from the below assessments	Completed Level 2 and 3 6035 or 8202 (or other AO equivalent with skills scan): Exempt from the below assessments
