

Barring for 4520

This document indicates which units are barred – only one of the units of the barred combinations can count towards the credits for the qualifications.

If you have taken a barred unit in one qualification under suite 4520, the combination will carry over to the other available qualifications in the suite.

Version and date	Change detail
1.2 September 2022	Units deleted and added as part of a structural amendment. Barring updated accordingly.
