Level 3 Certificate in Mentoring 600/6564/3

OVERVIEW

What does this qualification cover?

This qualification is for people involved in mentoring learners in the workplace. The Level 3 Certificate in Mentoring has been developed using units from the Learning and Development qualifications and from ILM. The qualification is designed for use across the UK.

The units and qualification will provide people who carry out learning and development roles in their organisation with the opportunity to develop and improve their practice as well as achieving a professional qualification for the role. They are available to anyone working in: accredited learning; non accredited learning (where people may train and assess skills but do not assess for a qualification); the NQF and the Framework.

Achievers of these units will learn how to:

- identify individual learning needs
- plan and prepare for learning
- mentor individuals
- support learners and employers

The Level 3 Certificate in Mentoring allows learners to learn, develop and practise the skills required for employment and/or career progression as a trainer/tutor/assessor of individual learners in many sectors.

Three of the units in the Level 3 Certificate in Mentoring also appear in the Level 3 Certificate in Learning and Development. This qualification is part of the Learning and Development Apprenticeship framework.

The qualification is on the Qualifications and Credit Framework
